HEY KIDS! Have A Happy, Happening Break!!

Children..., holidays are fun. Thirty nine days of no morning sun. Late rising, lazy afternoon watermelon and mangoful spoons, watching television at any hour of the day, playground and fun are not very far away. But are holidays supposed to make us irresponsible kids?

No. So we're going to take up certain responsibilities doing certain task and also enjoy our holidays with our families.

We have planned a small package of Holiday Homework and tried that you are not over burdened at any stage. It is just to ensure that you remain in touch with your studies and enhance your knowledge, skills and even memory.

Guidelines for Holiday Homework

- ❖ The Holiday Homework must be done in very neat and presentable manner.
 - ❖ Parents are requested to only guide their children while doing the assignments. The child has to do the homework in his/her own handwriting.
 - ❖ You must establish a set time each day to complete the holiday homework.
